MACOMB/MCDONOUGH COUNTY TRIVIA FACTS

1. Macomb was originally to be named Washington, but was instead named after War of 1812 General Alexander Macomb.
2. William H. Ball and James B. Fields opened the doors of their barber shop in 1872. This was the first black owned business in Macomb. The exact date the barber shop closed is unclear. It is listed in the 1876-77 City Directory. William Ball died in 1879.
3. The Maid-rite sandwich shop was opened in Macomb in September 1926 by the Dressen family. A few months later the business was purchased by the Collins family. This was the first "drive-up restaurant" in Macomb and the "Eat" sign was the first neon sign in Macomb. The building was demolished in 2018.
4. Ford Hopkins was a chain of drugstores that began in 1930, with 300 locations in Illinois, Iowa, and Indiana. The Macomb location opened its doors on May 15, 1930. The store permanently closed May 25, 2004. Ford Hopkins was a local favorite soda fountain that served cherry cokes and old-fashioned malts, sodas, and sundaes.
5. On the 1st of April, 1831 James M. Campbell erected a log house and opened the first general merchandise store in the city of Macomb and McDonough County.
